Dear Brethren

Greetings in the precious name of Jesus!

"Our publications have a most sacred work to do in making clear, simple and plain the spiritual basis of our faith...The great publications is to exalt God, to call men's attention to the living truths of His word." (Colporteur Ministry p. 1, 2).

The needs and desires of our membership are great especially in the fast changing world situations. The truth found in God's Word and amplified in the Spirit of Prophecy are needed for this time. It is also important to note, that when Ellen G. White is quoted, we can source the documents quite readily.

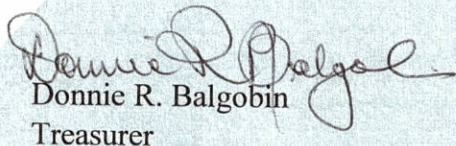

Hence, the South Caribbean Conference is extending to you the church, the opportunity to acquire the Ellen G. White Encyclopaedia at a reduce cost of only three hundred and fifty dollars ($350.00).

The administration is, therefore, requesting that the necessary arrangements be made to acquire a copy of the encyclopaedia to be used as a resource material for the church.

In addition, this offer is also extended to individual members who desire to have a copy for their personal library.

We thank you for your continued efforts to advance the mission of the church.

Regards
