Dear Brethren:

I greet you in the merciful name of Jesus our Lord!

We have watched with horror and concern the destruction created by monster hurricanes Harvey and Irma and we pray for the safety of life and property as Jose threatens.

As a church we cannot idly ignore the plight of our brothers and sisters and the wider communities in the Northern Caribbean and beyond, who were affected by these unprecedented disaster.

We are, therefore, asking our members and the wider national community to make donations toward the relief of our Caribbean brothers and sisters. Cash donations can be made to the South Caribbean Conference office from Monday September 11, 2017 between the hours of 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. We will also receive water, non-perishable food items, openers, personal items, clothing (used clothes will not be accepted), footwear, blankets, cleaning agents, building materials and barrels for shipping. These items can be dropped between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.

Please be assured that everything collected will be sent to the persons who are in need of these items. We will update you in future correspondence about the relief efforts.

Let us also give our prayerful support as many of our churches and schools have been severely damaged. May God bless you.

In the Masters' Service
