Dear Brethren:

I warmly greet you on behalf of the Administration and Workers of the South Caribbean Conference of Seventh-day Adventists (SCC).

The New Year is in full momentum, as we have no doubt been enjoying the 'Footprints of Hope' Evangelistic series. This series has been transformational for the church in the English speaking Caribbean of the Inter-America Division. We thank you for allowing the Lord to use you to share these messages of hope. We have already baptized two hundred and sixty-six (266) persons as at February 19, 2022, we say, to God be the glory.

As you may be aware, Pr. Courtney Francois has resigned as a minister of the gospel and he has left the Seventh-day Adventist church. You must know that many in this country and many abroad have arisen before Pr. Francois and many will come after him with new ideas, but they have not prospered. They have attempted to wreak havoc in the church and have sought to confuse and discourage the members. While some with itching ears may be deceived by the charisma, charm and promise of liberation, the Seventh-day Adventist church, South Caribbean Conference, stands secure.

Dr. Lael Ceasar in an article, The End of Confusion – Adventist Review February 9, 2022 posits, "Confusion is never God's fault. I may be confused because I do not truly want to know." These are very instructive words for all of us.

We therefore, cannot sit back and allow anyone to seek to hurt the church and its members. We encourage you to pray for our brother and his family. Can you imagine what will happen if all the members of this great church pray for one man and his family? Can we suggest a possible outcome to our prayers? The miracle of a changed heart and mind. This is what we have been praying for and we invite you to join us as we pray for him. While we dislike what he is doing and we must state that most vehemently, let us love him and his family back to the fold.

Since Pr. Francois has left the church, we are asking churches to discontinue sending your gifts to him and to Resurface Radio. However, the funds already sent to him from the churches will be given to him.

You will discover, that some strange things will be preached and taught by Pr. Francois, please be assured that your leaders and ministers will respond to the folly that is presented as gospel truth. Already, both our website and Facebook page have posted responses to his past and upcoming attack on Ellen G. White and her authenticity as the prophet to the remnant. Know also that the General Conference of Seventh day Adventists has responded to and answered what seem to be troubling questions concerning the Spirit of Prophecy.

As we indicated in an address by the SCC Administration to the church, God will take care of His church, and in the end He will triumph. The psalmist looking at his troubled times asked, "If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?" Psalms 11:3. His response is most reassuring, "The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD'S throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men". Psalms 11:4. God is alive and on His throne and that is enough for us to stay encourage and hopeful. Stay strong, keep the faith. Maranatha! Jesus is coming again!

Yours in the Master's Service
