Quote

Whenever God's people, in any period of the world, have cheerfully and willingly carried out His plan in systematic benevolence and in gifts and offerings, they have realized the standing promise that prosperity should attend all their labors just in proportion as they obeyed His requirements. When they acknowledged the claims of God, and complied with his requirements, honoring Him with their substance, their barns were filled with plenty.

Testimonies for the Church 3:395, CS 347.4
