THEME

Arise, Go – Light the Path

ANNUAL WORKSHOP

NOVEMBER 24 – 26, 2023

INTRODUCTION

The roots of Personal Ministries within the Seventh-day Adventist® church extend back to the movement's inception in the 1860s. This facet aims to ignite, empower, educate, and rally all members for active Christian engagement. It firmly believes in the words, "The church of Christ is organized for service" (Ministry of Healing, p. 148), and underscores the call for every individual to embrace their role as a missionary, serving both God and humanity.

Most of all Gabrielle loves the Lord and is honoured to have the privilege to serve for Him.

GABRIELLE ANDREWS-DERRELL

PRESENTERS' PROFILE

Pastor Ian D. Morris is the District Pastor of the Pioneer District of Seventh-day Adventists. Born to Seventh-day Adventist parents, Ivan Morris and the late Vilma Morris, Pastor Morris spent much of his life around the Church and its activities. Yet it was at age 17 that he committed his life to Jesus and began a journey with Him. During this journey, he served 15 years as an elder and 10 years as an Ordained Minister, and he is currently in his 18th year in pastoral ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Pastor Morris believes in the strong traditional values of the Seventh-day Adventist Church because it rests upon a solid biblical foundation. He is certain that the Seventh-day Adventist Church was divinely raised up to proclaim a message to prepare a lost world for His coming. He believes that now is the time to finish the work by reaching everyone with the everlasting gospel. It is for this reason that he leads a ministry called the Real Bible-Based Ministry, with a television program called "Bible & You" on Synergy TV from 10 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. every Sunday. This ministry is in its third year, reaching thousands for God.

His ministry spanned Trinidad and Tobago, the Caribbean, and the United States (Brooklyn, New York), where he resided with his wife and partner in ministry. After returning to Trinidad, he has pastored in the South East, North West, and Central Zones of Trinidad, and in everything, God has shaped his spiritual outlook and impact.

Thankfully, he is not alone; God has bound hearts, for in 2002 he married his friend and love of his life, the former Ms. Soushira Liverpool. She has been his partner not only in life but also in ministry. This union is in its 22nd year, and out of it, they have two children, Imani Morris and Shai Morris. Ps. Ian D. Morris simply wants to partner with God, as He (God) makes Himself great in the earth.

IAN D. MORRIS

PRESENTERS' PROFILE

Pastor Durwin Patrick Clarke was born in the scenic, pristine countryside of Toco, Trinidad. He graduated from Andrews High School and later completed his first and second degrees at the Andrews University, CUC/USC Campus in Trinidad.

Ministry

Pastor Clarke began his service for the Church as a Literature Evangelist for 15 years and continued his ministry in 1995, serving as District Pastor, Personal Ministries, Sabbath School, Adventist Community Services, and Publishing Ministry Director. Currently, he serves as District Pastor at El Socorro/Aranguez.

Highlights

During the course of his ministry, Pastor Clarke has raised up three congregations. His greatest joy is doing house-to-house work and discipling new believers. He seeks to train leaders who can nurture new members, and he believes every effort should be made to train members in all areas of witnessing to equip and empower them for service.

Family

Pastor Clarke has been married to his beloved Beverly Scott for the past twenty-four years. Together, they take sweet delight in nurturing three children: Loralie, 21; a USC business student; Jayden, 19, a USC nursing student, and Jaylon, 12, a CUC student.

Resolves

Pastor Clarke continues to challenge and lead the Church members to make personal daily inputs into people's lives, geared towards building up the kingdom of Christ.

PRESENTERS' PROFILE

Elder Gideon St Bryce served for twenty-two years in Youth Ministries at the South Caribbean Conference, both as Assistant Director and Director of the Youth Ministries Department. During this time he led multiple youth community intervention programs. Elder St. Bryce now functions as the Director of Chaplaincy, Public Campus Ministries, and Prison Ministries.

He holds degrees in Public Relation/Journalism, and Mass Communication and he has completed the four units of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at the College of Pastoral Care and Psychotherapy (CPSP).

He is a credentialed and commissioned worker of the South Caribbean Conference. Elder St Bryce has been married to Judith St Bryce for the past 35 years, and they are the parents of one young adult son.

His favorite Bible character is Naaman's maid. He has a passion for youth, he wholeheartedly believes that we are God's remnant church, and he is committed to the mission of God's church.

He posits that people will believe the message we proclaim to the extent that we show love to one another.

Elder St Bryce considers it a privilege to be a worker in God's Church and to have the opportunity to help complete the mission.
